

NZPSA Postgraduate Students Workshop 2013
(organised by Geoff Ford, Lucas Knotter & Sylvia Nissen)

University of Canterbury
Wednesday, 4 December, 2013

9:15	Welcome
9:30	Part 1: Academic speed dating A good opportunity to get to know postgraduates from other universities, and build a stronger political studies community across New Zealand.
10:15	Morning tea
10:30	Part 2: Publishing Politics A panel session providing the opportunity to hear from publishers, editors, and academics about their experiences of publishing in a range of formats – books, journals, online etc. Panel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Amy Fletcher, Senior Lecturer, Political Science, University of Canterbury • Jarrod Gilbert, Sociologist and Author of Bestseller, “Patched: The History of Gangs in New Zealand” • Michael Harland, PhD in American History and author of “Democratic Vanguardism: Modernity, Intervention, and the Making of the Bush Doctrine”. • Jeremy Moses, Senior Lecturer, Political Science, University of Canterbury • Catherine Montgomery, Publisher, Canterbury University Press • Moderator: Dawn Miller-McTaggart, PhD Candidate, University of Canterbury
12:00	Lunch at Staff Club: BBQ
13:00	Bus into Christchurch CBD
13:30	Part 3: Practising Politics at the Gap Filler Pallet Pavilion This session will discuss politics in practice. We will hear from a range of political studies graduates about their exciting projects and careers. Panel <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Kate Day, Anglican Social Justice Unit • James Caygill, General Manager of Tribal Interests Ngai Tahu • Ben Uffindel, Editor of The Civilian • Angela Woodward, VERTIC and PACDAC • Moderator: Dawn Miller-McTaggart, PhD Candidate, University of Canterbury
15:00	Explore the new Christchurch CBD Take a wander through a city in transformation.
16:00	Social time at a CBD bar (208 Madras Street)
17:00	Bus returns to University Return by 17:30

Note: Please wear comfortable shoes for the Pallet Pavilion

For further information contact:

Geoff Ford geoffrey.ford@pg.canterbury.ac.nz or Lucas lucas.knotter@pg.canterbury.ac.nz